Mrs. R. M. Dudley Forces a Mexican Thief to Leave Her Home Sunday.

Mrs. R. M. Dudley, 1200 Mess, drove a Mexican from her back door at the point of a pikel Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The man, apparently believing the occupants of the nouse absent, attempted to make entrance through the back door. Mrs. Dudler may the man, grabbed a pistol and told him to leave. She then telephoned the police, telling them the direction in which the Mexican had wone.

A Mexican, formerly an employe of the Alhambra theatre, was caught at an early hour Sunday morning roobing the confectionery and lunch room of the theatre. The man was turned over to the police but was later released when it was found there was no desire on the part of the owners to prosecute him.

Burglars who emberd the home of Mrs. A. M. Hayden, 1218 San. Antenio street. Saturday night succeeded in escaping with a quantity of clothing and dresses. Entrance was gained to the house through the bath room window by pushing up the screen.

Carlos Gutterres was arrested Monday morning with a quantity of garden hose in his possession. A charge of that was made against him and the hose in being held for identification.
